ST. LOUIS, JUNE 16.

After a hot contest, the National Republican Committee decided to carry the next National Republican Convention to St. Louis, Mo., and it will convene in that city June 16, 1896. There was more interest manifested in this committee at time than even before.

The St. Louis contingent, under the able leadership of Mr. Clark H. Simpson, Hons. Chauncey I. Filley and C. P. Waburley fought nobly. Mr. Simpson made himself congenial with everybody. He was particular favorite, and to him the people of St. Louis are indebted more than to any other man.

The Congressman from that State also made a happy speech.

The Bee will contain a sketch of Mr. Simpson, who was so popular while in this city, one of the best speeches made by Mr. George O. Knight, of the San Francisco Chronicle.

Mr. Knight alone electrified the delegates and had a vote taken at the conclusion of his speech, San Francisco would have been selected.

Mr. Knight is a fine handsome looking man, dignified and positive in his utterances.

Without an exception he made the best speech delivered by any one. The applause at the conclusion of his speech was long and deafening.

GREATLY REDUCED RATES TO ATLANTA EXPOSITION VIA SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

The Southern Railway will sell excursion tickets from Washington to Atlanta on Dec. 17th, and 17th to 26th inclusive and Dec. 28th at $14.00 good ten days and on December 17th to 25th inclusive at $8.75 good five days from date of sale, through Pullman Sleepers and Vestibuled Day Coaches.

A SWELL AFFAIR.

The Fifteenth Street Presbyterian Church opened their festival and fair on December the 2nd ultimo, and will close on or about the 16th of said month. The affair has been a signal success thus far, both social and financial and at present there are no grounds for alarm that it will not close in like manner. It would be in no wise appropriate for us to say that the participants are deserving of overwhelming commendations. The rooms are magnificently decorated, and the tables adorned with many paintings, are extremely pleasing to the eye. The refreshments, especially the coffee, which can be had at the Thanksgiving table, will undoubtedly infuse new life into the inner man. Below will be a correct list of names of the ladies in charge of the various tables, also the names of the tables:

New Years Table, by the King's daughters.
St. Valentine's Table: Misses Contee, Montague, Ella Bruce and Teresa Marshall.

Washington's Birthday Table: Mrs. Hurley, Mrs. Shadd, Mrs. Dolly Bruce, Mrs. Frank Hyman, Misses Hurley, Mason and Booker.

Easter Table: Miss Gertie Smith, Mrs. Charles Douglass, Misses Mattie Bruce, Josephine Weston, Maud Smith, Lottie Chisolm, Jennie Jones, Annie Gray and Annie Silence.

Fourth of July Table: Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Chestnut, Mrs. Betty Francis, Mrs. Cora Shepherd, Mrs. Landrick, and Miss Marshall.

Labor Day Table: Mrs. Grimke, Mrs. Montague, Mrs. H. Bruce, Mrs. K. Thomas, Mrs. Dorsey, Mrs. Colbert, Mrs. Bessie Johnson, Mrs. Gaskins, Parks, Mrs. Sinclair, Misses Carrie Gray, Frankie Martin, Barrier and Cruser.

Thanksgiving Table: Mrs. Contee, Mrs. Savoy, Mrs. Syphax, Mrs. Bruce, Mrs. Storum, Miss Midie Syphax.

THE WAITERS' PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION'S ELABORATE INSTALLATION. THE BEE INDORSED AS ITS OFFICIAL ORGAN.

The Waiters Protective League installed their officers at Shiloh Baptist Church on Monday evening Dec. 9th a very unique program was arranged and was carried out in like manner. The affair opened with singing, then Rev. J. Anderson Taylor delivered an extremely eloquent prayer.

Miss Green followed with a solo which won her much credit and was the occasion of much applause. Next installation of officers, in part you will please note Pres. Thomas' speech of acknowledgement.

Mr. Chairman Officers and members of the Waiters Protective League: It is with feeling of deep solemnity taking the office to which you have elected me to fill knowing as I do the responsibility which is attached to it I acknowledge its importance but without your support I can do nothing.

Every man must stand on his own shoulders to shoulder in the undertaking, you may expect to meet obstacles and discouragement upon the way, but you must throw them aside and stem them with hearts of contrivance, meet the issue with a bold front. There are many who consider the business you now follow as degrading yet they themselves occupy the same positions and are ashamed to acknowledge the fact. But stop let us pause a moment. What has he written who left his editorial throne came down and walked among the lonely here upon earth, what I say has been written in the book of books. "By the sweat of his brow shall the man earn his bread." Some one must be the hewer of the wood and the drawer of water, we cannot all be lawyers if we were there would be no clients, we cannot all be doctors if so there would be no patients, nor can we all be clerks because there are not enough offices to fill, neither can all of us be ministers because such a calling must be from God. Some one must till the ground, some one must sow the seed, gather the grape, grind the grain and make it into the necessary food for use, or both man and beast would starve and the earth would be a mass of petrified corruption, but God in his all wise Providence has not ordained it so.

Miss A. Payne rendered a very creditable solo. The address of the evening was by Mr. L. H. Peterson, "subject," "The Negro as a Servant and his Citizenship." Mr. Peterson's effort was well directed but perhaps a little lengthy. The all important collection was then in order. Soprano solo Miss A. Payne, very good, bass solo, Mr. Emmet C. Jones, fine. Then the efficient Prest., Mr. Thomas, offered as a suggestion, that the live and strict Republican Journal, THE WASHINGTON BEE be made the organ of the Waiters Protective League, offering for such suggestion, that the "BEE" was at present the official organ of several associations and that the League's interest would be well cared for if it should indorse the Journal abreast of the times. The Bee, after the brief remarks of the Prest., Mr. Lawrence Clarke then motioned that the "BEE" be made the official organ of the League which was immediately recorded, same was carried unanimously. The veteran headwaiter, Mr. Nailor, followed with a few remarks that were well received. Next Mr. Carter of New York a guest of headwaiter Nailor spoke, he made a grand effort vote of thanks to Rev. J. Anderson Taylor which went through with much gradification. The Pastor closed with Doxology. It would be unfair not to say a word or two in behalf of the ladies and their refreshment department, we can say that everything along those lines was perfect and the ladies very entertaining.

If you want to know all the new read THE BEE.

COMMANDER JONES REPLIES.

OFFICE OF THE SOVEREIGN COMMANDER OF THE UNITED SUPREME COUNCIL OF THE ANCIENT ACCEPTED SCOTTISH RITE, FOR THE SOUTHERN AND WESTERN JURISDICTION OF AMERICA.

CHICAGO, ILL., Nov. 7, 1895.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Since my arrival home to Chicago from the annual session of the United Supreme Council that was held at Washington, D. C., Oct. 31st, on account of the defeat of T. A. Jackson, 33rd; F. C. Revell, 33rd; James O. Bampfield, 33rd; for offices in the Supreme Council, they have seceded and withdrawn from this Supreme Council, and have now claimed to have set up one of their own, and are now sending out false statements and circulars to try to create confusion in the Order.

This will notify all Scottish Rite Masons, that at the special session of the United Supreme Council, held in Chicago last week, J. G. Bampfield, T. A. Jackson, Frederick C. Revell, of Washington, D. C., have been expelled for gross and un-Masonic conduct from this Council, and from all rights and privileges of Scottish Rite Masonry, and all regular and loyal Scottish Rite Masons in this jurisdiction, all over the country, are requested to hold no Masonic correspondence with them whatever. I wish here to state that there are only six men in Washington, D. C., including these three, mentioned, who are engaged in this work. We have now a Consistory organized in Washington, and there are fourteen thirty-third Masons who are members of this United Supreme Council, and who are worthy and reputable citizens of the District of Columbia.

Any one of them can tell you of the unlawful Masonic methods which have been adopted, and which are now being pursued by these three seceders. There is not a Consistory outside of Washington, D. C., that is holding any Masonic allegiance, or paying any attention in the least to those expelled Masons.

Any information about these seceders and the well-fare of the Order can be fully ascertained from D. F. Seville, 33rd degree, who is Grand Secretary-General of the United Supreme Council for the Southern and Western Masonic Jurisdiction, who is located at Washington, D. C.

Yours faithfully,

JOHN C. JONES,

Sov. Grand Commander.

BAILEY INDORSED.

A BIG MASS MEETING IN HIS INTEREST.

There was a big Bailey Mass Meeting held on last Thursday night at Odd Fellows Hall, on M street, n. w.

Louis H. Douglass was named as President, Samuel Jackson, Secretary and John W. Taylor, Assistant Secretary.

Long before the appointed hour every seat in the hall was occupied.

Rev. Wm. A. Credit offered prayer, after which Dr. S. R. Watts was introduced and indorsed Mr. Bailey in a great speech.

Hon. J. Hall Syphax was also introduced, and made a speech.

Mr. P. H. Carson spoke and declared that those present were with him.

Mr. L. C. Bailey was then introduced and was received with enthusiasm.

The house went wild, the following resolution was adopted, which showed that Carson did not have a majority as he asserted.

Resolved, That we, the republicans of the District of Columbia, in mass meeting assembled, do hereby indorse L. C. Bailey as our candidate as delegate to the next National Convention.

In presenting Mr. Bailey as our standing member, we do it with the full consciousness that the representatives of the late war who wore the Blue and the Gray, and the organization there of the "Grand Army of American Valor." It was regarded as a radical proposition at the time, but the discussion which has followed has at last been productive of good results. Several conferences have been held in New York recently, which resulted in the organization of a General Committee for the United Veterans' Parade. It is now said that the idea originated with Col. John J. Garnett, but Comrade Ennis, of Troy, was an enthusiastic advocate of the union meeting and parade of the Blue and Gray long before Col. Garnett thought of it. But it makes but little difference who first made the suggestion. The gratifying thing is that we can count upon the meeting as an assured fact, and it is earnestly hoped that out of it will come one "Grand Army of American Valor," composed of the heroes who fought on both sides; and henceforth we shall know no North and no South, but throughout our great land there shall rise in clear and noble outline one great people, guarding in their exalted virtue this heritage of liberty and law consecrated to humanity through the bloody ransom of patriots' lives.

The time schedule of the Empire State Express between New York and Buffalo has been reduced from eight hours and forty minutes to eight hours and fifteen minutes. The new schedule requires that the Central's noted flier shall be run from New York to Buffalo, a distance of 440 miles, at an average speed of 51.3 miles an hour. The fastest regular long-distance train in England averages 51.75 miles an hour.

Don't forget the rally at Plymouth Church next Sunday all day. Let all friends giving a helping hand.

Rev. Dr. J. W. Hayes, of Asbury M. E. Church will preach at Plymouth Congregational Church next Sunday, December 15th. A big rally is expected.

Hear the special sermons next Sunday, December 15, at Plymouth Church, corner 17th and P streets, n. w., by Rev. J. Anderson Taylor at 3 p. m., and Rev. D. W. Hayes at 7:30 p. m.

OUR ALBANY LETTER.

AN ALBANYAN ON THE U. S. SUPREME COURT JUDGE.

His Career in Our Own History—A Fast Train Increases Its Speed and Annihilates Distance—The Blue and the Gray Unite—A Politician's Sad Fate.

Special Albany Letter.

The appointment of one of our most eminent Judges to be Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States may or may not have special political significance at the present time. But to the people of Albany the elevation of Judge Rufus W. Peckham to this great office is peculiarly gratifying. The appointment of Judge Peckham recalls the previous nomination of Mr. William B. Hornblower and his rejection by the Senate in 1894, and the subsequent nomination of Wheeler H. Peckham and his rejection by the Senate in February of that year, through the efforts of the New York Senators.

Rufus W. Peckham is a brother of Wheeler H. Peckham. He has always lived in Albany. His father was one of the Judges of the Court of Appeals at the time of his tragic death in 1873, and the son always cherished an ambition to succeed his illustrious sire. In 1883 he was elected to the Supreme Court, and in 1885 to the Court of Appeals. Had he finished out his term he would have retired in 1900. His Judge Rufus W. Peckham. opinions as an Appellate Judge are considered among the ablest, clearest and most concise coming from the highest court.

The relations existing between Judge Peckham and Senator Murphy are believed to be friendly, and there is no reason to suppose that Senator Hill is in any way unfriendly to him. So his conference seems to be a matter of course.

At a Democratic State Convention some years ago Senator Murphy headed a movement, which was quietly worked up, and which came very near proving successful. The purpose was to bring Rufus W. Peckham forward at the opportune moment as a compromise candidate for Governor. Like many a well-laid plan, this movement failed. But the failure was only by a scratch, and the skill and ability with which the movement was conducted attracted attention to Senator Murphy and was a means of increasing his influence in his party.

The elevation of Judge Peckham to the higher court leaves a vacancy in the Court of Appeals, which will be filled by Governor Morton, and Judge Vann, of Syracuse, is likely to be the fortunate person.

Nearly six months ago, in this correspondence, I made public the proposition of Mr. Ennis, of Troy, a prominent Grand Army man, for a reunion in New York of the survivors of the late war who wore the Blue and the Gray, and the organization there of the "Grand Army of American Valor." It was regarded as a radical proposition at the time, but the discussion which has followed has at last been productive of good results. Several conferences have been held in New York recently, which resulted in the organization of a General Committee for the United Veterans' Parade. It is now said that the idea originated with Col. John J. Garnett, but Comrade Ennis, of Troy, was an enthusiastic advocate of the union meeting and parade of the Blue and Gray long before Col. Garnett thought of it. ance train in Germany is credited with an average speed of 51.35 miles an hour. At present, therefore, the New York Central train is indisputably in the lead as a flier.

By maintaining the prestige of an unrivaled train service, the Central Hudson road continues to develop an influence that has for four years been a potent factor in developing the discipline, morals and general efficiency of the large body of men employed in the handling of its trains. As a stimulant to greater efficiency in train service, the Empire State Express has been of incalculable benefit to the New York Central Railroad. The locomotive engineers, the firemen, the conductors, and the trainmen who serve on this fast train are the pick of the entire New York Central service.

Promotions to the Empire State Express are made solely as rewards of demonstrated merit. The men employed on that train receive more pay than those engaged in the ordinary service, consequently the Empire State Express is the goal toward which every engineer and trainman on the road is constantly striving.

Moreover, it is a demonstrated fact that this train is not only a record breaker in regular long-distance passenger service, but also that it is an extraordinary money maker. It earns in the neighborhood of $1,000,000 a year, averaging about $90,000 a month. Its capacity is frequently tested to the extreme limit. Often persons take passage on this train after being informed that every seat is filled and that standing room only remains. This eagerness to travel rapidly, even at some personal discomfort, has been manifested most frequently in the runs of the Empire State between Albany and New York.

The sad fate of ex-Comptroller Edward Wemple, of Fultonville, calls forth expressions of sympathy from all who knew him while in Albany. After second examination Mr. Wemple was pronounced insane, and has been taken to the Utica State Hospital.

Mr. Wemple was a popular man in Montgomery County, and had held the offices of Supervisor, Assemblyman, Senator, member of Congress and State Comptroller for two terms. During his six years residence in Albany he made many friends, who sincerely regret that this sad affliction has come upon him.

Wouldn't Have It. "And you think," she murmured, "that we could be happy on your present income?"

"Yes," replied the young man, "I am sure of it."

"And you will not ask papa for money?"

"No. Your father and I played poker last night. Unless he changes his ideas of the game I won't have to ask him for money."—Washington Star.

Bitter Butter.

A correspondent of the Practical Farmer says, to avoid bitter milk, have as good fresh feed as possible; and, secondly, by scalding the milk when first drawn, by setting it in pans over a kettle of boiling water till the skin which forms on the top is well wrinkled, and then setting it away to cool for the cream to rise. Treating it this way will drive out the bitter flavor, improve the butter and make it easy to churn.

Full Preparation.

"I thought," said the solemn person, "that you intended for your little son to enter the ministry."

"I do," said the father.

"And yet you allow him to have such wasteful toys as a gun and sword."

"Yes; I think he ought to get familiar with the use of them. He might be sent as a missionary, you know."—Indianapolis Journal.

A Delicate Compliment.

An English lady complained to a shopkeeper that, in sending parcels to her, he would address her as "The Honorable." "Don't mention it, ma'am. It signifies at all." "But it does signify. My parcels may go to the wrong person. I am not 'Honorable.'"

"We, madam, have always found you so."—London Spectator.

Escapating Him.

Magistrate—Then your husband has ill-treated you?

Witness—No, your Worship. Did he not bite off one of your ears?

Witness—No, your Worship; I did it myself.—Tit-Bits.

Odd But Nice.

"Papa," said Jimmieboy, "you are the nicest man in the world."

"And you are the nicest boy in the world," said his father.

"Yes; I guess that's so," said Jimmieboy. "Isn't it queer how we both managed to get into the same family?"—Harper's Round Table.

The Least.

"Let us make the most of life," exclaimed the man.

"Nix," rejoined the woman, bitterly. For a long time they were silent, and when again they spoke she still persisted that she was only twenty-eight. That was the least she could possibly make of her life with her face.—Detroit Tribune.

Sympathy.

There are those who never take a stone out of the way, never put any light into darkness, never any comfort into sorrow. But there are those, too, who have much of the milk of human kindness, whose hearts are tuned to the key of tenderness, whose faces beam and scatter sunshine.—Rev. W. H. Moore.

CONGRESS AND OUR FOREIGN RELATIONS.

Speaker Reed as Ruler of a Big Majority.
New Warships and Coast Defences—Foes in Congress—Condition of the Treasury—Rise of Judge Peckham.

The assemblage of the present Congress is an important one in many respects. Our international relations have become involved in various directions, particularly in respect to the Monroe doctrine and the protection of our citizens in foreign lands. Y. shrewd observers see that our foreign policy has a disposition to outrun our means of national offence and defence. We have now an efficient and thoroughly modern navy, which answers all the purposes of a pacific foreign policy, but it is not large enough for war. But little progress has been made in modern defences for our seaport cities. The questions concerning our relations to the great powers are more imminent than have come before any recent Congress.

The difficulty between Venezuela and Great Britain, in particular, which the Administration has made the occasion for an assertion of the Monroe doctrine as against the latter power, contains within it the germ of a perhaps serious imbroglio. Our Government practically insists upon arbitration of the whole question as to territorial limitation between the two powers. Lord

Speaker Reed Taking the Oath of Office.

Salisbury has replied that Great Britain will refuse to submit to arbitration any territory within what is known as the Schomburgk line. The whole matter will soon come up before Congress. When Speaker Reed took the oath of office on December 2, he doubtless did so with a realizing sense that he had to deal with a majority rather than a minority. The trouble with big majorities is that they are unruly. The man from Maine showed himself to be a stern presiding officer when he had to face a powerful and unruly minority in 1883. Just how successful he will be in managing the present preponderating Republican majority in the House remains to be seen. There is a general opinion that his tactics will be equal to the emergency. Reed has something of a Shakespearean head, and he will hardly repeat himself. It is the efforts to provoke an immediate foreign war will scarcely meet with the success that certain ardent patriots desire. The President's treatment of our foreign relations in his message has met with greater approval than was expected, and the trend of Congress seems to favor a conservative policy in respect to most foreign matters, unless the Venezuelan question is an exception.

The most patriotic policy that Congress could now pursue would be to go slow with foreign controversies and provide liberally for the navy and seacoast defences. Secretary Herbert recommends the building of four new battleships and twelve torpedo boats. This request is modest enough, considering the extraordinary measure being adopted by all foreign powers for the increase of their navies. The plain necessities of national defence demand that we should go on with the work of naval construction, and it is generally agreed that Secretary Herbert's recommendations are as moderate as the situation demands.

Secretary Lamont's suggestions regarding the work of coast defence are also very important at this time. It is a little strange that this work has not been provided for more liberally. At present, the Government gunboats at Watervliet is turning out a sufficient agency of great guns, but the appropriations have been deficient in the matter of providing carriages and emplacements for mounting them. Good progress has been made with the new forts at New York, Boston, San Francisco, and a few other points, but the majority of our seacoast cities are still entirely deficient in modern means of defence. Taken all in all, however, remarkable progress has been made in our military and naval defences in the past ten years. Our strength would not appear so deficient were it not for the extraordinary war preparations of the great powers of Europe. Nothing like it has ever before been seen in the history of the globe. No one can tell how soon the conflict that has so long been impending will break out. It may result from the present complication in Turkey. The most conservative statesmen believe that the readjustment of the map of Europe will take place before the close of the present century. It certainly is good policy for us to be prepared to protect our commerce and other interests when the conflict comes.

One of the features of the new Congress is the number of new members. It is needless to say that a majority of the members of the present House are new to national legislative life. So many new members have not taken the oath in any recent Congress. Even the Senate has twenty new members, a minority of whom are promoted from the lower house.

The question whether the Republicans will make a determined effort to secure control of the Senate is exciting much attention. The silver Senators control the situation, and are not unaware of their advantage. It is evident that a fight to oust the Democrats will be made, but whether it will be very earnest is yet in doubt.

The statement of the receipts and expenditures of the Government, in the report of the Secretary of the Treasury, is more gratifying than was expected. There has been a big increase in Treasury receipts over 1893, and 1894. The deficit for the month of November was a little over a million dollars, but still it was a deficit. The deficit of a year ago for November was $3,066,755. In 1893 it was $7,322,626. There has been a steady increase of revenue during the present fiscal year, and Treasury officials are hopeful that the revenues will soon exceed the expenses of the Government. This condition renders tariff tinkering doubtful this session.

The President and family have moved into the White House, as has been their custom upon the assembling of Congress. The President's utterance in his message regarding Cuba attracted much attention. Those who expected a direct statement of sympathy were, of course, disappointed. It is not generally known that Mr. Cleveland has visited Cuba. The trip was made in 1893, after he had served his first term of the Presidency, in company with Gen. Sherman and Thomas F. Bayard.

The appointment of the Hon. Rufus W. Peckham, of New York, to the vacancy on the Supreme Court bench is received with much favor here. It is known that neither Senator Hill nor Senator Murphy will oppose the nomination, so that there is practically no doubt as to confirmation. Senator Hill is said to have favored Rufus W. Peckham in 1893, when he succeeded in defeating successfully the nominations of Eugene W. Hornblower and Wheeler H. Peckham, the latter being a brother of the present nominee. Some politicians pretend to see in the nomination a glimmer of returning Democratic harmony as a result of the recent political reverses of that party.

TOWNSEND.

She Stopped the Car.

As the cable cars left the LaSalle street tunnel one day last week the train was brought to a sharp stop, while there sounded the agonized cries of a child.

It was an intense relief to learn that the baby wasn't under the car wheels; but something else was under the car, if not the wheels.

The conductor saw the impending tragedy, and, as the little gray thing headed directly for the car, had made an effort to save it.

The kitten could plainly be seen underneath the car, apparently unhurt and looking about as though much interested in what she saw. Cane and umbrella were thrust at her, and many emphatic commands given, to all of which Miss Fuss paid no attention.

The passengers enjoyed the joke at first, and the cat's young mistress was consoled by many womanly, tender kisses; but when it seemed that the kitten did not intend to come out, those in a hurry became impatient, and at last it appeared that the only thing left to do was to start the car and crush the poor little kitten's life.

Then it was that suddenly she walked out with the satisfied air of one who has mastered the intricacies of the cable system and was soon clasped in her adoring mistress' arms, while the cable proceeded.—Chicago Herald.

Honor.

The people imagine that it is a great honor to be elected to Congress or the Senate, or to be made President. This is a mistake. All that the people can do is to put a man in a place where he can earn honor. Honor is not alms; it must be earned. Even an infinite God could not place in an unworthy hand the jewel of honor; honor must be won. It comes from the inside; not from place or power; not from majorities or crowns. This gem called honor can be won and worn in the valleys as well as on the mountain tops; in obscurity as well as in the light and blaze of fame.—Robert G. Ingersoll.

The First English Cup of Tea.

In all probability, the first cup of tea made in England was drunk upon the site of Buckingham Palace, St. James' Park, for the Earl of Arlington took the first pound of tea to England, having bought it in Holland for sixty shillings, and at this time the Earl resided at Arlington House, which was used down to make room for Buckingham Palace.

An Old Fish.

Prof. Baird states that one of the pikes which can be seen at the Imperial aquarium, St. Petersburg, was born toward the end of the fifteenth century, and is now, therefore, about 400 years old. This extraordinary fact is rendered more probable when it is borne in mind that divers other fishes in the same aquarium are over 300 years old.

The Sight of Spiders.

Experiments indicate that spiders have a long range of vision. It is not always possible to tell, however, whether the lower animals perceive sight by hearing, or by the action air in motion has on their bodies. It is asserted that mice are sensitive to the motions of the air which to human ears create no sound whatever.

True, Whoever Said It.

A story attributed to several distinguished men is going the rounds. It is a bit of advice given to one who could never find any occupation to suit him, and is as follows: "My dear boy, observe the postage stamp; its usefulness depends upon its ability to stick to something until it gets there."

THE SENATE.

The republicans will probably reorganize the Senate and in the event of such reorganization there will undoubtedly be a tilt between the President and that body, whose political complexion differ so materially.

In many instances the President will be stubborn as the Senate, and unless both branches of Congress can secure the necessary two-third vote to pass measures over his veto it is not expected that there will be very much legislation.

WAR AGAINST THE JEWS.

Dr. Herman Ahlwardt, of Berlin, the Anti-Semitic agitator, has arrived in this country. His mission is to make war against the Jews.

Whatever the peculiarities of the Jews may be, they are a good and kind people, and The Bee, so far as it is concerned shall always stand on the side of the oppressed.

The Jews like the negroes have been oppressed, and if Dr. Ahlwardt advises extermination of the Jews he should be removed himself.

Perhaps Mr. Bradshaw will not talk so much about his Central Republican Committee.

Some men may think that they are strong, but when it comes to a test they find themselves weak.

No doubt Mr. Bradshaw suggested to himself the power to carry the republican party in the district upon his shoulders.

A GAME OF BLUFF.

It is a game of bluff and hide and seek that the anti-primary election republicans in the district are playing.

It will be just as impossible for Carson to be elected as it will be for an elephant to turn a back double summersault.

The day of mob rule at meetings have come to an end.

The people or rather the republican party in this city will see to it that representatives and intelligent men are elected to the next convention.

CARSON MEETS.

The National Republican Committee that convened at the Arlington Hotel this week in executive session at the suggestion of the opposition to fraud the elections in the District of Columbia decided to allow the republicans to elect their delegates to the next National Republican Convention at primary meetings.

This proposition was strongly opposed by Aaron Bradshaw the putative chairman, of the Carson faction of the District Republican Central Committee.

This has been the fight of the Bee for the last ten years.

The republican party in the District of Columbia is a representative body and now that we shall have a system by which our delegates are to be elected, we shall get rid of mob control and whiskey meetings which are a menace to good government and the republican party in the District of Columbia.

Mr. Carson asserted at the Arlington Hotel on Tuesday that there would be no order from the National Committee to change the mode of elections in this city.

He said with him a Baltimore contingent, who gave him all the aid and comfort that could be given a defeated politician.

The most surprising thing is, the opposition to primaries by Col. Parker who wanted to elect delegates by the old system, which he knew would be a dangerous thing to the republican party in the District.

Mr. Carson must now retire from active political life.

His days of usefulness have gone and those who tried to give him aid and comfort in opposition to the will of the people must meet the same fate.

We want a representative republican party in this city, and it is evident that we shall have it.

FIVE OF THE SIX DROWNED.

They Were Riding the Swell From a Passenger Steamer.

Pittsburg, Dec. 11.—Six residents of Woods Run, Washington County, spent Saturday evening at Brownsville, and about midnight started down the river in a skiff for home. A short distance below Brownsville they were overtaken by the packet Adam Jacobs, and while riding the waves their boat was capsized. All except James Stevens were drowned. The victims were Mrs. James Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McIntosh, John Picknick and William Ashton. The pilot of the packet had been made to rescue the people, who could be seen under an electric search-light struggling in the water. One by one they sank before the boats could reach them. James Stevens tried to hold up his wife by the hair, but had to let her go. The bodies of McIntosh and Ashton were recovered yesterday, but those of Picknick and the two women are still in the water.

He Will Resign.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.—Representative Lawrence McGinnis, of Chicago, who held a seat in the Fifty-second and Fifty-third Congresses and was chairman of the Committee on Labor in the last Congress, will furnish to the public an unusual spectacle of a member making a voluntary relinquishment of the seat to which he holds the certificate. As soon as he is able to secure recognition from the Speaker Mr. McGinnis will make a statement to the House to the effect that he thinks that his Republican opponent, Hugh R. Belknap, is entitled to the seat and that he (McGinnis) waives all claims thereto. This step will make it possible for the Committee on Elections as soon as it is organized to report in favor of seating Mr. Belknap, and will relieve that gentleman of the necessity of making a contest before the committee. Mr. Belknap, who will succeed Mr. McGinnis, is a son of the Hon. W. W. Belknap, who was Secretary of War under President Grant.

All Hands Weakens.

London, Dec. 11.—The Telegraph this morning publishes a dispatch from Vienna saying it is reported that a compromise has been reached between the foreign representatives at Constantinople and the Sultan regarding the guardianship question. The Sultan, it is said, will grant the firmans necessary for the entry of the guardships into the Bosphorus on condition that the powers will not use them unless the lives of Christians are seriously endangered.

The Standard to-day publishes a dispatch from Constantinople saying that it is believed that the present Ministry is doomed. Said Pasha is now President of the Council of State.

Killed With the Scissors.

St. Louis, Dec. 11.—Andrew Hulen died at the City Hospital last night. It is said that last Sunday Hulen and his wife quarreled; that in her rage she grabbed a pair of scissors and threw them at him; that one of the points entered his right eyeball. The following day he was taken to the City Hospital suffering intense pain. Bryalpelas set in and finally attacked the brain. Five days before his death Hulen became delirious. He died in agony. His wife was arrested on a charge of murder.

Belle O'Brien's Crew Safe.

Plymouth, Eng., Dec. 11.—The British steamer Rosemarion, Capt. Notman, from Norfolk to Leth, has arrived and handed the captain and three members of the crew of the American ship Belle O'Brien, of Thomaston, Me., which foundered about 130 miles northwest of Kerry Head. Six members of the Belle O'Brien's crew reached Kerry Head in a boat belonging to that ship on Saturday morning last, after having suffered greatly from hunger and thirst.

For Passing Worthless Drafts.

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 11.—Upon information furnished by W. F. Smith, a local attorney, a man calling himself Judge A. B. East was arrested here Saturday night, charged with passing a worthless draft. Two women who are traveling with the Judge, Mrs. Meek, aged seventy-four, and her daughter Belle, aged forty, were also arrested for complicity in the alleged crime.

62 Tramps Held a Town.

St. Paul, Minn., Dec. 11.—Sixty-two tramps raided the city of Cumberland, Wis., last night, demanding food and shelter, and threatening destruction to the town if refused. A posse was organized and three of the ring-leaders were locked up. They soon broke jail and another chase was given by the officers and several shots exchanged before the tramps were recaptured.

More Revolution.

Panama, Dec. 11.—The Star and Herald says: A number of Ecuadorian emigrants at Panto have publicly organized an army to invade Ecuador for the purpose of overthrowing the recently established government of President Alfaro. The revolutionists are within sight of the garrisoned towns of Tuncan and Ibarra and an attack is expected hourly.

BAYARD IS ATTACKED.

Republicans Want Him Impeached. Anti-Trust Speeches in Legislature. Washington, Dec. 11.—The long threatened attack upon Ambassador Bayard was made yesterday. It came in the form of a resolution offered by Mr. Barrett, a new member from Massachusetts, solemnly stating: "I impeach Thomas F. Bayard, United States Minister to Great Britain, for high crimes and misdemeanors."

The introduction of this resolution produced a sensation. The debate was exciting and was enjoyed by crowded galleries. Mr. Crisp jumped at once to the defense of the Ambassador and soon had his small force of Democratic well in hand. While the Democratic minority is a small one, it showed that it has elements of strength.

Interviews with the leading Senators last night show that very little importance is really attached to the Barrett impeachment resolution. None of the Senators would be quoted, as they said that so long as a resolution of that character is introduced, it is not to be considered while there is the slightest possibility of their sitting as judges of Mr. Bayard, express any opinion for publication. They indicate privately, however, that they do not believe that anything more will come of it than perhaps a vote of censure on the part of the House.

FARM PRICES DEC. 1.

Hay and Wheat Range Higher, But Corn Is Lower.

Washington, Dec. 11.—The December returns to the statistical division of the Department of Agriculture relating principally to farm prices December 1. The farm price of corn averages 26.1 cents, against 45.6 cents last year. The average price of wheat is 52.2 cents per bushel, against 49.8 last year; of rye, 43.7 cents, against 50.5; of oats, 20.2 cents, against 32.9; of barley, 35.4 cents, against 44.3; of buckwheat, 49.2 cents, against 56.2 last year.

The returns show the average price of hay to be $9.38 per ton, against $8.32 same date last year. The average price of tobacco returned at 61 cents, against 67 cents last year. The price of potatoes on the farm is reported at 28.3 cents per bushel, against 55.5 cents last year.

The condition of winter wheat on December 1 averaged for the country 81.7 per cent, against 89 last year and 71.5 in 1893. The returns make the estimate of the crop of that year 20,000,000 bushels, against 20,000,000 in 1893. This estimate, which is preliminary to the completed estimate of June next, therefore, makes the area sown for the harvest of 1896 22,647,000 acres.

No New Nile of the North.

Ottawa, Dec. 11.—The report of the Government Commissioner of Crown Lands for the Province of Quebec has just been issued and contains a map and explanation that effectually dispose of the wonderful "Nile of the North," alleged to have been discovered by an Ottawa explorer, Dr. Bell. A map of the Hudson Bay slope and a survey of the adjacent northeast waters of the upper Ottawa region are published in connection with the report, showing explorations made by H. O. O'Sullivan and others, including territory that has been known for years. The "Nile" River is no other than the Meliklan River, which has its source at the head of the Gattineau waters, flows to Lake Metakami, and thence to James Bay under the name of the "Nile" River. The Meliklan, or the "new Nile," is in reality a western branch of the Motoway River, being separated from the main body by the above mentioned Lake Metakami.

Crespo and the British Note.

London, Dec. 11.—The Times prints a dispatch this morning from a correspondent in Caracas giving the result of an interview with President Crespo, of Venezuela, that effectually disposes of the question of the outrage upon the British Guiana police and the boundary question were to be treated distinctly as between Great Britain and Venezuela, but he declined to discuss the British note on the subject. He added that the Venezuelan officer who had been expelled from the subject would be punished for exceeding his instructions, and that the Englishmen would be compensated. He was unable, he said, to see any reason for British intervention.

Alive in Her Coffin.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 11.—Susan Wright, a fifteen-year-old colored girl, residing with her parents at Suffolk, sixty miles west of this city, died Monday afternoon. The body was confined yesterday morning and brought to Portsmouth, just across the Elizabeth River from Norfolk, for burial. On the lid of the coffin being removed the girl sat up and began laughing, throwing those present almost into a panic. The girl says she could hear everything that was said around her bier, and knew she was to be buried, but she could not move or speak. Last evening she returned home with her parents.

Not a Pauper Now.

Poughkeepsie, Dec. 11.—Abram A. Croft, seventy years old, inmate of the county poorhouse, was notified that he had fallen heir to $15,000 by the death of an aunt in England. He left the poorhouse at once and has begun legal proceedings to secure his legacy.

A Sop to Herr Von Koeller.

Berlin, Dec. 11.—The Berliner Correspondenz publishes a letter from Herr William to Herr Von Koeller, late Prussian Minister of the Interior, in which he assures him that while holding that office and assuring him of his Majesty's continued goodwill.

Mangled by a Bulldog.

New Haven, Dec. 11.—Samuel Morris's bulldog caught a neighbor's child yesterday, and when Mrs. Morris tried to rescue it the dog threw her down and bit her terribly. The woman's arms, hands and breast were frightfully mangled.

Democratic Mayor of Boston.

Boston, Dec. 11.—Josiah Quincy (Dem.) is elected Mayor over Edwin Curtis (Rep.) by about 3,000 plurality. The Common Council will consist of fifteen Republicans and nine Democrats.

OUR TERRITORY.

HOW IT IS DIVIDED INTO ELECTION DISTRICTS.

There is a great deal of interested manifested in the coming election of delegates to the next Republican Central Committee and District convention in this city, and a great deal has been said as to the boundary lines of the several districts.

The Bee that is always up to date in news and all matter of interest has published below the boundary lines of the twenty-two districts in the District of Columbia, which will enable those who don't know in what district they live to know.

The District of Columbia shall be divided into twenty-two districts, each of which shall elect one delegate to the Legislative Assembly, and which districts shall be as follows:

First District.—All that part of the county of Washington, outside the limits of the cities of Washington and Georgetown, lying east of Lincoln avenue and Bunker Hill road.

Second District.—All that part of the county of Washington, outside the cities of Washington and Georgetown, lying west of Lincoln avenue and Bunker Hill road.

Third District.—All that part of the city of Georgetown lying west of High street.

Fourth District.—All that part of the city of Georgetown lying east of High street.

Fifth District.—All that part of the city of Washington lying west of twenty-first street.

Sixth District.—All that part of the city of Washington lying south of K street north and N street north, and between Fifteenth street west and Twenty-first street west.

Seventh District.—All that part of the city of Washington lying between K street north and N street north, and between Fifteenth street west and Twenty-first street west, and north of N street, and between Fourteenth street west, and Twenty-first street west.

Eighth District.—All that part of the city of Washington lying north of N street north and N street north, and between Fourteenth street west, and Twenty-first street west.

Ninth District.—All that part of the city of Washington lying between G street north and N street north, and between Eleventh and Fifteenth streets west.

Tenth District.—All that part of the city of Washington lying between G street north and N street north, and between Eleventh and Fifteenth streets west.

Eleventh District.—All that part of the city of Washington lying south of the canal and west of Eight street west.

Twelfth District.—All that part of the city of Washington lying between Seventh street west and Eleventh street west, and between G street north and N street north.

Thirteenth District.—All that part of the city of Washington lying between Seventh street west and Eleventh street west, and between G street north and N street north.

Fourteenth District.—All that part of the city of Washington lying north of K street north, and between Capitol street and Seventh street west.

Fifteenth District.—All that part of the city of Washington lying between D street north and K street north, and between North Capitol street and Seventh street west.

Sixteenth District.—All that part of the city of Washington lying between North and South Capitol streets and Seventh street west, and between D street north and the canal.

Seventeenth District.—All that part of the city of Washington lying between D street north and K street north, and between North Capitol street and Seventh street west.

Eighteenth District.—All that part of the city of Washington lying south of G street south, and between South Capitol street and Eighth street west.

Nineteenth District.—From E to N Capitol street to Mass. avenue and first to K street s. w., along K street to N Capitol to boundary.

Twentieth District.—All that part of the city of Washington lying south of E street north, between North and South Capitol streets and Fourth street east.

Twenty-first District.—All that part of the city of Washington lying east of Fourth street east, and between E street north and E street south.

Twenty-second District.—All that part of the city of Washington lying between E street north and E street south, and between South Capitol street and Eighth street west.

Hon. Robert Smalls and his little son are in the city.

Hon. Geo. W. Murray of South Carolina is in the city.

Hon. N. W. Cunney, of Texas and Col. James Hill, of Mississippi are in the city stopping at Mrs. Brown's 1410 1 street, n. w.

Mrs. Alice Eggleston and her two beautiful little boys, who have been the guests of Mrs. Compton, 210 21st street, n. w., and who has had such a pleasant stay in the city, returned to their home in Buffalo, N. Y., yesterday. Mrs. Eggleston won a host of friends while here, and her departure caused many to regret. She was entertained Thursday at tea by her friends.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Johnson have issued cards for their silver anniversary, which will take place Sunday evening, December 22d. They will be at home 2015 Vermont avenue, n. w., Monday evening, December 23d, at 8 o'clock.

The Persian cashmere ribbon are lovely on dark gowns. It is also used down the front in place of a box plait, and on this can be placed three large handsome pearl buttons.

Miniature, painted and dresden buttons are used on blouses and coat basques for ornaments, but not for use.

Bronze buttons set with cut steel are handsome on the fashionable brown goods in vogue.

The latest skirt shown by French designers requires ten yards or twenty-two inch silk for a skirt forty inches long.

The front and side seams of a skirt may be trimmed with narrow passementerie to give height to the wearer.

Plaid skirts are worn with plain colored waists.

The round bolero jacket fronts are worn again over a full front and belt of silk.

Crush collars extend to the chin and sleeves come well over the wrist. Sixteen-button gloves are worn to evening entertainments.

Every woman needs a good standby gown and that one should be of a good quality serge or a mohair. Beautiful buckles of rhinestones or well imitated colored gems increase the elaborate air of dressy chapeaux.

Well dressed women always appreciate the vogue given to all black costumes.

The evening bonnet to be smart must not only show that it is becoming, but must show that it was created for evening wear.

The collar that looks so simply must have a certain air to look stylish.

Italian Troops Fall Back.

London, Dec. 11.—A dispatch to the Central News from Rome says that Gen. Baratieri, Governor of Erythraea and commander of the Italian troops, telegraphed last evening that fully 70,000 Abyssinians have invaded the Tigre country and are besieging Makalle and Antalo. Forty thousand of the enemy are in the vicinity of Adowa. Consequently he has ordered the Italian force at Adowa to fall back to Adigrat, where he has only 6,000 men.

$500,000 for a Railroad.

Topeka, Kan., Dec. 11.—At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon the property of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad Company was sold at auction by Judge J. D. Johnson, special master of chancery. The only bid was one of $500,000, made by Edward King, of New York, representing the reorganized company, and the property was declared sold to him. The sale was afterwards confirmed by Judge Caldwell.

Burglar "Treed" by a Dog.

Chicago, Dec. 11.—For four hours yesterday morning a burglar kept Burglar Walter Russell perched on top of an ice-box in Morris Barenstein's saloon in Van Buren street. Russell had started out with his plunder under the dog, which had up to that time kept quiet, dashed out from under the ice-box. Russell climbed up on the box, and was found there at 5 o'clock when the saloon man arrived.

A LIBERAL ORGAN OFFER.

That there has been a revolution in the manufacture of Organs and Pianos is evinced by the current offer of Cornish & Co., the well known manufacturers of Washington, N. J. For the next 60 days they offer to sell an organ or $42.50, which a short time ago would have been considered a desirable bargain at $75.00. With this they offer terms of credit that are sure to meet with the approval of every fair-minded person. Cornish & Co. are the largest makers of Pianos and Organs in the world selling direct from the factory to the home. Since the conception of this great business, nearly thirty years ago, they have been fighting the method of selling instruments through agents and dealers, their plan being to give the enormous profits usually retained by the tradesman to the buyer. Their efforts to place first class instruments within the reach of all, at manufacturer's prices and the most liberal terms, deserves the highest commendation. Every one who is contemplating the purchase of an Organ or Piano, should get the catalogue issued by this firm. It illustrates and describes all the latest and best designs of Organs and Pianos with prices and special offers that are sure to prove profitable. They generally offer to send to it free to all who write and mention the BEE.

BIG FIRMS IN CHICAGO.

Flame, Furniture and Shoe Firms Burned Out.

Chicago, Dec. 9.—The four-story brick building at Nos. 175 and 185 Wabash avenue, occupied by piano, furniture and shoe firms, with its valuable contents, was almost entirely gutted by fire at 11 o'clock last night. When the firemen broke into No. 175 a watchman was lying in his night clothing just inside the door. He had made an effort to escape, but was overcome before he could get to the door. He is in a critical condition. In No. 185 two men were sleeping on the top floor in the rooms of C. H. Frost. Mike Aschewer, one of the men, made his way to the second floor, but finding the flames had cut off the escape by the stairs he jumped from a second-story window into the alley, receiving serious injuries. Arthur W. Watson, the other man, got no further than the third floor, from which he was taken by firemen. Nothing in the building escaped damage, and the loss will be over $100,000.

Fire in the notion house of H. Wolf & Co. at 7 o'clock yesterday morning caused a loss of between $200,000 and $300,000 on the stock and about $50,000 on the building, which was owned by the Conrad Seipp estate. Both the stock and the building were fully insured. The house of Wolf & Co. is in the heart of the wholesale district, and for four hours the firemen fought the fire to keep it from spreading. A. W. Hayward & Co., wholesale shoes, and the Steuben Wine Company suffered slight losses from water. The fire was caused by the burning of an over-charged electric wire. John Dore, a member of a hook and ladder company, was in the building when a burning ceiling fell. He was seriously injured.

MORE APACHE MURDERS.

An Entire Family of Five Victims—"Apache Kid" the Leader.

Deming, N. M., Dec. 11.—Word has just been received that an entire family, consisting of father, mother and three children, were murdered by Apaches near Bowie station, on the Southern Pacific, last Thursday. Indians were seen by cowboys who mounted thirty-five of them crossing the trail. By the time the news of the murder spread, the Indians were miles away and ready to swear that they were peaceable and were simply out on a hunting expedition.

The scene of the recent murders is close to the abandoned Fort Bowie. Cowboys are said to have had a fight with Indians on Sunday in the vicinity of Solomonville.

The troops from Fort Bayard, under Lieut. Clark, are at Stein's Pass, close to the international boundary line, to prevent the passage of the redskins over the Sierra Madre. The military are displaying great energy, and it is believed by the authorities that they will be able to drive the Indians back on their reservation. It is thought that "Apache Kid" is at the head of these raids.

Spokane, Wash., Dec. 11.—A stranger went into the office of F. W. Gilbre, division superintendent of the Northern Pacific Railroad, yesterday and said: "I can tell you where there is from $30,000 to $40,000 in money that was stolen from your company hidden away in the mountains near Hope." The stranger bore the appearance of respectability and seemed to be perfectly sane. The man gave his name as James B. Boyd and said that he had gained the confidence of W. B. Withers, a prisoner in the county jail charged with train robbery, who had revealed to him the secret of where he had $30,000 or more in cash hidden away, which he represented as being the proceeds of two train robberies, one on the Southern Pacific, near Sacramento, and the other on the Northern Pacific, near Montana.

Peckham is Confirmed.

Washington, Dec. 10.—The Senate in executive session yesterday confirmed the nomination of Rufus W. Peckham to be Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Albany, Dec. 10.—Judge Peckham will go to Washington the first week in January to assume his judicial position. He declined to be interviewed today in regard to his future plans and refused to define his position on the income tax.

Gold From Country Banks.

Chicago, Dec. 9.—During the past ten days the gold reserve has been increased $200,000 through the Chicago Sub-Treasury by money received from country banks. Sub-Treasury officials say the country banks are giving up their gold, but the city banks do not seem very anxious to help swell the reserve.

Well Known Conductor Dead.

Rochester, N. Y., Dec. 10.—James O. Van Dake died of pneumonia at his home in this city yesterday, aged fifty-five years. He was for many years conductor on the Niagara Falls branch of the New York Central road and was widely known by travelers from all parts of the United States and Canada.

Small Fox on the Ohio.

Cleveland, Dec. 10.—Dispatches to the Press say that the small-pox epidemic has again broken out along the Ohio River. There are now fourteen cases at Bridgeport and four at Martin's Ferry. The epidemic was caused by the public funeral of a man who died from the disease.

Rome Train Wreckers Guilty.

Rome, Dec. 10.—The coroner's jury in the case of the train wreck on November 19 last evening brought in a verdict which found J. W. Hildreth, Theodore Hibbard, Fred Bristol and Herbert Plato guilty of causing the accident with the intention of murder and robbery.

No One Guilty.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 10.—Coroner A. buckle has rendered his verdict in the viaduct disaster in which eight people were killed. He finds no one guilty in the case.

Lauterbach Victim One.

New York, Dec. 11.—The returns indicate that the complexion of the new County Committee will be as follows: Lauterbach, 97; Brookfield, 7; doubtful, 8.

ATTENTION! LADIES!

All who are desirous of having their hair straightened, by the

A POINTER

ON THE SIDE

Any woman is justified in complaining of her husband's reading the paper at the breakfast table.

Reading at the meal time robs the wife of all sociability and possibly of any domestic talk.

A good man is always ready to consult his wife about the plans for the day.

Women should also avoid reading letters at the breakfast table, for it shows disrespect to those present and is more objectionable than newspaper reading, for what is in the paper all can read.

True conversation is an orderly interchange of ideas and not a battle of words, like a heap of loose stones shot pell-mell out of a cart.

Bessie—Invitations to dinner receptions can be answered in a few words such as, "Miss White regrets that a previous invitation prevents her from accepting your kind invitation for December 25th."

Fretting is a waste of time, and is too much overlooked in valuation of character.

Cheerfulness, sincerity, industry, perseverance and unselfishness may be acquired by practice and constant repetition, as much as the art of correct speaking, or of playing the piano and are far more necessary to health.

There is no such good fun or good training as making oneself useful in doing little things like work.

Many women really become old before their time, because they will not join in any of the various outdoor amusements which are now provided in such abundance for our sex.

The great mistake most people make is to over do their amusements, in exactly the same manner as they over do their work, this being the case no rest of any kind is obtained.

No one wish to see a woman of thirty playing about like a young girl, and it is certainly hideous to see a woman of that age associating with young girls.

A woman who looks well to the ways of her household should know how long, funder ordinary circumstances certain supplies, such as teas, coffees, etc., should last.

Be content to do the things you can, and fret not because you cannot do everything.

Make the best of what you have done; and don't make yourself miserable by wishing for what you have not done.

Beware of a person with two faces.

Take a cheerful view of everything and be pleasant to those who will let you.

Don't talk of your private, personal, or family matters.

Give your tongue more holiday than your eyes or hands.

Examine into your own shortcomings rather than those of others.

Act as if you expected to live a hundred years, but might die to-morrow.

Do the duty that lies nearest to you and the second duty will already have become clearer.

Never reply to a sharp angry word; it is the second word that makes a quarrel.

A naturally gentle nature is apt to remain gentle through life.

Women who are gentle from their inheritance and not because of their surroundings are capable of easing the most disturbed mind.

A profane woman, a woman thief, a lecherous woman, or a criminal woman of any kind, is almost without exception, looked upon as a monster, or a freak of nature like a two-headed baby.

Nothing is more annoying than to receive answers to remarks which betray the absence of the mind underneath.

"Look well before you leap." It is better to do well than to say well.

When people fail to appreciate acts of kindness they should be regarded as inhuman.

THE NEWSIEST AND BEST JOURNAL PUBLISHED.

The Washington Bee is no doubt the newest and best journal published by an Afro-American in this country.

The Bee contains more news than any two weeklies published anywhere in the United States.

Here is what our exchanges say:

THE BEE HIVE DUMPED.

[From the American Star.]

Washington newspaper publishers are getting up in the world. Friend Cooper has removed the Colored American's old hat and put on a regular "Dunlap" headgear, while Brother Chase politely dumped the "old hive" and procured a brand new hive with artistic cells, and of course the Bee is humming. Both papers are beautiful. We like to see it, if we can't.

"BETTER LATE THAN NEVER."

[From the Texas Freeman.]

We are just a trifle late in saying so, but the Washington Bee has made mechanical changes that improve its appearance and reflect credit on the management.

[From the Appeal.]

The Washington Bee recently made considerable improvement in its appearance and enlarged its size to a quarto. Since his late little unpleasantness Chase seems to be "stronger than ever."

[From Newsperdom.]

The Washington (D. C.) Bee has been enlarged and substantially improved. The general tone and character of the Bee sustain the place and name it has made for itself under the editorial management of William Calvin Chase.

[From the Fourth Estate.]

THE BEE BUSIER THAN EVER.

The Washington (D. C.) Bee has been enlarged and substantially improved. It is now an eight-page paper. The general tone and character of the Bee sustain the place and name it has made for itself under the editorial management of William Calvin Chase.

[From the Southern Forge.]

The Washington Bee comes to us this week in great shape. It has a new head and twice the size. Brother Chase is going ahead. And if you bother the Bee you'll get "stinged."

[From the Alexandria Leader.]

The Washington Bee has purchased an entire new outfit. The Bee will be issued as eight-page paper. May success attend the Bee.

[From the Evening Star.]

ENLARGED TO EIGHT PAGES.

The Washington Bee appeared Saturday, enlarged and substantially improved, as an eight-page paper. It also presented many illustrated features, including portraits of Major Moore, Commissioner Ross and other District officials and prominent citizens. The general tone and character of the Bee sustain the place and name it has made for itself under the editorial management of William Calvin Chase.

The leading editorial Saturday pledges support to Gov. McKinley's candidacy for President.

[From the Western Optic.]

The Washington, D. C., Bee is out in a new dress of type and with its improved make-up now ranks with the foremost Negro newspapers in America. May the Bee improve each shining hour.

[From the Athens Clipper.]

The last issue of the Washington Bee presents a very pleasant appearance to the public. It has eight pages abounding in rich reading matter. Editor Chase has lost none of his old time vigor in wielding the pen. The Clipper congratulates the Bee and hopes it and its editor may live many years to sting the enemies of the race.

[From the Baltimore Standard.]

The Washington Bee comes to us this week in an eight-page form, and much improved every way. Editor Chase is to be congratulated.

[From the Chicago A. M. E. Record.]

The Washington Bee came out last week, considerably improved. It is now a six-column quarto, and has the appearance of property stamped upon all of its departments.

THE STING OF THE BEE.

From the Wide Wake.

Here's to you editor Chase on the successful appearance of The Bee. May it continue to sting the wayward

HEWING TO THE LINE.

[From the Chicago Republican.]

Brother Chase, of the Bee, is still hewing to the line in Washington. He certainly has the courage of his convictions. A recorder of deeds in Washington cuts no figure with Chase.

CONGRATULATES THE BEE.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa.,

October 12, 1895.

W. Calvin Chase.

Dear Sir: Inclosed find check for the amount I owe you. I congratulate you upon the improvement of the new issue of your paper. I am glad to see you are aiming right for the future as you have always done in the past.

With best wishes for your success, I am, yours, respectfully,

THIS WEEK'S NEWS.

A Summary of Current Events—The World's Doings for the Past Six Days Gathered and Condensed for Our Readers.

General.

President Cleveland is on a duck hunting expedition.

Gold to the amount of $2,600,000 was shipped to Europe Saturday.

William O. Bradley, Republican, was inaugurated as Governor of Kentucky.

The road will be about 200 miles long, and will tap a valuable coal mining district.

Burglars secured $150 in money and a quantity of stamps from the post-office at Clinton, N. Y.

Twenty or more wrecks have been reported from various seaports of Italy with great loss of life.

A thousand stone-masons struck in New York to enforce their agreement for $3 pay for an eight-hour day.

Efforts of tailors' contractors in New York to return to the sweating system may precipitate a strike of 20,000 men.

President Cleveland has determined to remain several days longer in the hunting grounds in hope of good ducking weather.

Senator Cameron, of Pennsylvania has announced that he will not be a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate.

Bronze fac-similes of ancient Roman coins imported by Columbia College were detained at the Custom House as counterfeit money.

The Sultan of Turkey has granted the permission demanded by the powers for the passage of extra guardships through the Dardanelles.

The report was published in New York that Mrs. Dimmock, niece of the late Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, will soon be married to the ex-President.

Congressman Black, of New York, has introduced a bill to pension Mrs. Mary Gould Carr, widow of the late Gen. Joseph B. Carr, at $50 a month.

William H. B. Smith, an inventor, of Forest Hill, N. J., with an office in New York, drank chloroform liniment after a spree in New York and died.

A concession from the Chinese Government to build a line of railroad from tidewater to Peking has been obtained by a syndicate of American capitalists.

The Rev. Dr. Joseph F. Johnson, rector of Christ Church, Detroit, Mich., has been elected Bishop of the new Episcopal diocese of Southern California.

Four men have been arrested at Buffalo on suspicion of wrecking the D. L. & W. train at Preble. They were sent to the penitentiary until their records can be looked into.

The four boys who wrecked the New York Central train near Rome, N. Y., have been committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury on the charge of murder in the first degree.

Senator Morgan, of Alabama, made a strong speech in the United States Senate against the payment of England's Behring Sea claims and asserted that the actual amount due is $98,100 instead of $425,000.

Exceptionally heavy weather prevailed during last week over the British Isles. Numberless small wrecks have occurred, and considerable damage has been done to shipping, but the loss of life has been small.

Joseph T. Jenkins, a gambler, stabbed W. B. Macklin in a Chicago cab. Macklin fell against Jenkins, getting up to give his seat to a lady, a quarrel ensued and the stabbing followed. Macklin will die.

A new trial has been denied in the case of Theodore Durrant, of San Francisco, convicted of the murder of Blanche Lamont. He has been sentenced to death, but the date of his execution has not been set.

James M. Hurd, aged seventy-three, of Biddford, Me., was found dead in bed with his skull crushed and his throat cut. His son, Alfred J. Hurd, who has always been regarded as peculiar, was arrested and confessed to the murder.

A ruling by Judge Allison that Ludlow Street Jail, New York city, is the proper place to confine Federal prisoners demolishes the claim of the defense in the trial of Sheriff Tammson that the General Sessions Court has no jurisdiction.

Emma Allen, a young married woman of Elmer, Pa., was shot dead by her cousin, Ernest Allen, who resides at Addison, N. Y., but has been at Elmer visiting relatives. Allen says it was an accident, but the coroner has held him for murder.

The divorce business is not languishing in Chicago. Five judges ground out 100 divorces in three hours last Saturday. They averaged twenty to each and nine minutes for each divorce. Judges Payne, Haney, Horton, Bretano and Tuley did the business.

The petrified bodies of three men, supposed to be prospectors who visited Bismarck, N. D., many years ago, and mysteriously disappeared, under circumstances which pointed strongly towards murder, have been found in a lonely gulch several miles north of that town.

Lizzie Schauer, the young woman who was committed to the workhouse by Magistrate Mott, of New York city, has been discharged from custody on an order from Judge Andrews, of the Supreme Court. The Judge said there was no evidence on which she could have been committed for disorderly conduct.

The date for the big Confederate reunion and corner-stone laying of the Jefferson Davis monument at Richmond, Va., has been finally postponed to June 30 and July 1 and 2 next year in order that the veterans may go from Richmond to New York to attend the reunion of the blue and gray on July 4.

Mrs. Francis L. Higginson, aged forty, wife of the famous Boston banker and a social favorite, has forsaken her home and family, leaving no word behind her, and eloped with James Wheatland Smith, aged twenty-six, a lawyer. They took passage on the steamship Columbia for Genoa. Mr. Higginson's friends think she is of unsound mind. Mr. Higginson is a multimillionaire, and has cabled his wife $100,000, remarking: "Why, the poor things will starve."

GRAND BLACK PATTI

at Metropolitan A. M. E. Church, Christmas evening, Dec. 24, 1895. Don't fail to hear their new selections.

Miss Blackston, of the Wayland Seminary, will visit her parents in Maryland during the holidays.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the George Leary gave a very pleasant entertainment on last Monday evening at the residence of Mrs. E. Smith.

This association is working in connection with the George Leary with Mesdames C. Ficklin, President, R. Dabney, Secretary, and D. Bundy, Treasurer.

These ladies appreciated the many complimentary trips last summer on the Leary to Glymont, Rocky Point, Norfolk and other pleasure grounds thought to repay the management of the Leary by reciprocating something substantial which was realized on Monday night presenting a handsome by purse.

A very charming waist could be fashioned of black accordion-plaited chiffon over corn-colored silk, the lower portion cut around and finished with a twist of corn-colored ribbon and streamers.

One of the modes of the season not yet decided upon is the fashionable dog. The dog has his day in society, just as the shape of sleeves, skirts, and material of which gowns are fashioned have their vogue.

At an informal lunch a bare table is very pretty with a square center piece of delicate lace.

Violets are creeping into favor again. This humble, but fragrant flower will never lose its popularity for long in the heart or on the dress of English women.

The rose has undergone very harsh treatment at the hands of the so-called artist, who has produced it in unnatural shades and tints. It now sits ill upon it, and natural shades and tints are once again fashionable on the latest up to date evening gowns.

One of the things that the fashionable woman picks up abroad now to hang in her drawing-room is a set of priest vestments. These are used for window and door draperies. In using them as lambrequins or doorway draperies, breaths of silk of a contrasting or harmonizing hue are drawn through the openings made in the robes for head and arms.

The lady attired in a tailor made gown always appears well-dressed and has an air of chic and stylishness.

Dress trimming are greatly worn this season which gives encouragement to those making over gowns.

The net bands bearing flowers and scrolls in colored, jet and gold spangles, are the newest trimming.

There are also satin ribbons, plain and printed, colored and embroidered with spangles of every shade.

In spite of all the color effects jet holds its own in spangles and beads for galleons and shaped pieces.

Fancy printed and brocaded satin ribbons are use for stock and crush collars.

DELEGATE CONTEST.

There seems to be some doubt among the politicians as to who will be the strongest and best man to represent the republican party from this city in the next national convention.

The BEE has printed a list of the gentlemen who have been mentioned as candidates, and as an inducement to make this contest interesting, the BEE will present a fine gold headed cane to the candidate who receives the highest number of coupons. The coupons will be received and counted by the contest editor, and all coupons will be kept and counted in the presence of a committee to consist of one friend from each candidate.

Each coupon will count one vote, which must be sent to the contest-editor of the BEE.

THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE.

WHO WILL THE NEXT DELEGATES BE? VOTE FOR YOUR CHOICE.

The coming Republican contest for delegates to the next National Republican Convention will be a hot one. Public meetings have been held throughout the city, and it is still undecided who the most popular man is.

As a test of each man's strength the BEE will publish the list of the probable candidates, with a coupon attached, which will enable friends of each candidate to vote for his choice.

REV. A. G. DAVIS.

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 3, 1895.

Lyon Manufacturing Co., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Gentlemen:—Mexican Mustang Liniment has been our household companion for years; it has always given the best satisfaction. I regard it the best article on the market. I find many of my parishioners using it and they call it the King of Liniments. Personally I can recommend it to any and all families.

Yours very truly,

REV. A. G. DAVIS,

Pastor of Davis St. Presbyterian Church.
